PAR PALS

The saying 'teamwork makes the dream work' could not be more fitting than on October 19 as the 2-Ball Partnership Trophy 2019 saw a total 46 pairs taking to the fairways. The competitors were challenged by fast and tricky greens, running at speeds of 12 on the Stimpmeter.

The overall winners were Chai Chew Wah and Chuah Kooi Peng, scoring 40 points each for a total of 80. Deputy General Manager Ravindran Varnagopal and Senior F&B Manager Abdul were on hand during the prizegiving to present the Top-15 pairs as well as the four novelty winners with their prizes.

Thumbs up for a good game!

MASTERFUL CLASS ON AND OFF THE FAIRWAYS

Bringing class to the fairway and to the table, the Macallan M Masters 2019 saw a total of 112 golfers teeing off on August 28.

The bespoke event saw many classy touches including a Bentley as a hole-in-one prize and fittingly finished with a lavish prizegiving dinner, where over 140 guests enjoyed sumptuous food as well as free flow of The Macallan whisky.

REMOVAL OF DECAYED TREES FOR SAFETY PRECAUTIONS & REPLANTING WITH HYBRID FRUITS & COCONUT TREES

TGCR, in its efforts to maintain greenery and the environment whilst placing priority on the safety of members, residents and golfers alike, has made measures to replace decayed and infested trees.

The Club has identified and begun removal of trees that have either suffered some form of damage or decay from insects, fungi or simply misaimed golf balls alongside those that are posing safety threats as they are leaning towards various areas like drink huts, residences and other populated locations. Protruding tree roots are also removed as they damaged the drains and buggy paths, causing safety hazards.

The trees are being replaced with hybrid fruits and coconut trees.

DOUBLE WESTPORTS EXTRAVAGANZA

All set for a fabulous game!

Excitement was high on September 20 as Westports Malaysia Sdn Bhd staged two events at TGCR – the Westports Open 2019 golf tournament and the Westports 25th Anniversary Dinner.

The golf tournament was played using the Stableford System 36 format and saw a huge field of 178 participants showing off their skills on the undulating fairways and fast greens.

Meanwhile, the 25th Anniversary Dinner saw 340 attendees enjoy the annual company gala of the port operator, which also incorporated the prize-giving for the golf tournament. Sharnaz bin Abdul Shukor proudly received the trophy as Westports Open 2019 champion.

I'M LOVIN' IT!

When it comes to charity events, sports are often a good way to pique people's interest – and golf is no different.

Taking place on September 5, the Ronald McDonald House Charities (RMHC) Malaysia Charity Golf saw 120 participants playing for the benefit of underprivileged children and their families. The lunch that followed saw 149 participants present to contribute to the charity collection.

PROBABLY THE BEST GOLF TOURNAMENT!

Hot days and cool drinks came together in the much celebrated Carlsberg Golf Classic Central Open Leg at TGCR on October 17.

A total of 64 golfers signed on and competed, enjoying lots of fun and merriment on and off the golf course as drinks were shared along with much camaraderie. Unfortunately, inclement weather caused play to be suspended with a few holes remaining and the prizes were given out via lucky draw.

FUN WITH THE FAMILY AND FRIENDS

The TGCR Family Carnival on September 8 saw around 500 members and their families enjoy an entire Sunday of fun.

The colourful carnival featured 50 vendors displaying their products and services, including Proton Edar who showed off their latest models.

Numerous games and contests were organised, including Penalty Shoot, Coconut Bowling, Bull Riding and Dunk Tank. For those who needed some refreshments and nourishment, F&B stalls served up delights like Popcorn, Curly Fries, Satay, Nasi Lemak, Kaya Balls and Pasta.

For the young ones, clowns livened up the atmosphere as they took part in colouring contests and other games. There was even a meet-and-greet with Cosplayers dressed up as Marvel superheroes!

The adults meanwhile enjoyed the Pilates and Ninjutsu demonstrations, along with numerous lucky draws.

The Palm Coffee House saw a massive turnout during the Mid-Autumn Festival on September 14, with mouth-watering flavours filling plates and the unmistakable aroma of barbeque meats from the buffet wafting through the air that evening. While the fare satiated one and all, guests were also given lanterns to brighten up the celebration.
