Benefits of Sun for our Health

Vitamin D

Cases of Vitamin D deficiency are due to lack of sun exposure. Vitamin D controls calcium levels in the blood, making it crucial for bone and muscle development. It also acts as prevention of osteoporosis.

How do we get enough Vitamin D without increasing the risk of skin cancer?

MODERATION IS KEY

Keep an eye on your local UV index, which will change over the course of the day and vary with time of year.

Be cautious during the middle of the day, when the UV index is highest. This can cause skin cells to die, damage or develop cancer. Staying out longer in the sun does not increase your Vitamin D.

Our bodies only store enough Vitamin D to last between 30-60 days

Sun exposure also prolong life. That's because the benefits of lower blood pressure include cutting risk of heart attacks and strokes. As well as helping in weight loss and improves Alzheimer's symptoms.

BRAIN DEVELOPMENT

Sun exposure lead to better memory and cognition. Sunlight could help spur nerve cell growth in the hippocampus, which is the part of the brain responsible for forming, organizing and storing of memories.

BOOST GROWTH AND HEIGHT

Sunlight boosts growth in children. Many cultures around the world recognize this fact and expose children to mild sun to boost growth and height.

HEALTHY EYES

The human eye needs light in order to maintain its efficiency. Sunlight is as necessary to the normal eye as are rest and relaxation. UV light is also a factor in the development of cataracts.

HELPS WITH DEPRESSION

Without enough sun exposure, your serotonin levels can dip. Low levels of serotonin are associated with a higher risk of major depression with seasonal pattern (formerly known as seasonal affective disorder or SAD).

PREMATURE AGING

Premature aging is caused by skin damage that results in wrinkles and changes in skin texture when being exposed too much to sunlight

Sunlight triggers production of vitamin D, which in turn has been shown to help reduce the risk of dying from breast, colon, prostate, and lung cancers.

DINING DELIGHTS

REVAMPING DINING LIFESTYLE

DINING INSPIRATIONS

With an easy and relaxed concept, Chef Zaihari desires to provide unforgettable experiences when you dine at Tropicana Golf & Country Resort's outlets. He has many ways of preparing his dishes from his extensive culinary background creating healthy and hearty meals without compromising flavour, maintaining the balance in taste.

NEW MENU

He is keeping things simple and is simply adding the 'Zing' of flavours in each of his dishes. Almost more than half of the restaurant's staple menu has been revamped and upgraded from breakfast, lunch to dinner dining options. The dishes incorporate the local Malay, Chinese, Western and other types of cuisines, creating a well rounded menu to be enjoyed by families dining together.

Chef Zaihari is standing by a basic menu with plenty of appealing go-to dishes. He has plans to review the menu regularly in the future as he intends to provide more variety to his patrons.

We are all looking forward to his delicious ideas following the Movement Control Order (MCO) being relaxed. During which time, this long awaited food 'face-lift' has been successfully planned and executed.

IT WAS TEAM WORK

It was a lot of hard work for the team to accomplish this challenging task. From revamping the staple ingredients, preparation methods to cooking and serving presentation techniques. They achieved this and will no doubt continue to keep to the highest standards.

MUST-TRY

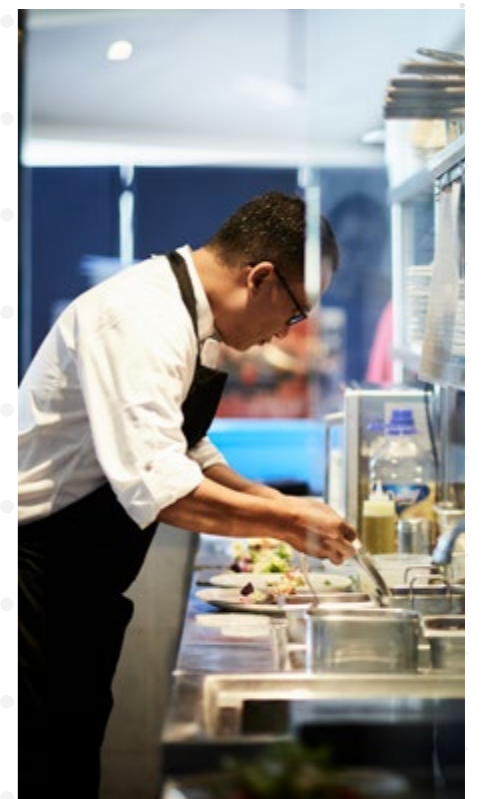

Serunding Scrambled Egg - a delightful fusion by adding spice and texture to a basic breakfast staple.

Apam Pisang Madu - Fluffy banana pancake, topped with fruits and dazzle of honey.

Salmon Teriyaki - A dish with a Zing, seasoned with seaweed flakes and wasabi infused mashed potatoes.

Australian Grain Fed Beef Tenderloin - Bite into a tender and flavourful beef steak with sides.

Cantonese "King Prawn" Hong Kong Style - Topped with hot freshly made gravy upon order, the dish is seasoned just right to get you lips smacking and mouth watering

NATURE IS HERE

TGCR proved to be an Aves haven as masses of species take refuge and even reside in the Resort. The stretch of landscape from West Course Hole 12 to Hole 15 is a perfect playground for the large flock of Asian Openbill Storks, as they stroll along the fairways and greens; and catching rays of the morning sun. Adjacent to Wetland Environment project at West Course, whenever our team are near or a golfer approaches, you will see the breathtaking sight of these storks taking flight and soaring to the next hole, and back again when the coast is clear. Other hotspots for these migratory birds are East Course 1 Hole 4 and Hole 5, and East Course 2 Hole 11, all seemingly neighbouring our Wetland Environment projects there which are near completion.

Datuk Chung Hon Cheong an avid photographer and bird watcher, with help from his regular flight mates Mr Jack Tan, Mr Tony Toh and Mr Stanley Chin (to name a few) would often take a quick snap of the many species they've spotted during their game (of course within the given completion time of the hole), as you can see from some of the photographs he shared such as the Asian Glossy Starling, Javan Myna, Brown Shrike and Purple Heron; even the Oriental Magpie-Robin perching at a fence and the majestic Brahminy Kite in predatory mode at a nearby pond of his residence.

Painted Stork

We got our fair share as well, sighting the Little Egret, a small heron of the Ardeidae family; Striated Heron, also known as mangrove heron; Barn Swallow, which is the most widespread species of swallows in the globe; Yellow-Vented Bulbul, a resident breeder in Southern Asia commonly found in open habitats; and other large birds namely Painted Stork and Eastern Great Egret are also spotted favouring our lakes and the many food sources on offer.

Even from Score Board area besides our Golfers Lounge and Twenty7 Restaurant you can hear the chirpy songs of the Oriental Magpie-Robin; and when you're at the fairway, there's the staccato cooing call of the Zebra Dove and the characteristic chupp call of Long-Billed Pipit; a pleasant experience that doesn't distract your focus while you're taking a swing or putting for a Birdie.

White-throated King Fisher

There are also some kingfishers. The Forest Kingfisher, also known as Tree Kingfishers, spotted at our flowering Red Flames trees located East Course 1 Hole 4; and a personal favourite the White-Throated Kingfisher that seems to be at every twists and turns of the course, be it at our blooming Jaracanda and instantly adding more beauty to our already picturesque flora landscape; or even at the fruit trees and signages in the course, confidently posing a for picture perfect sight.

Happy golfing and do enjoy your bird-watching, but remember No Slow Play as you look out for these birds.

COMMUNITY

THANK YOU BRAVE FRONTLINERS!

The spirit of giving continued to be prevalent during the holy month of Ramadhan and Syawal, although this year it was not possible for the donors to physically be present. The act of kindness was not only extended to Orphanages and Elderly Care Centers, but also to our heroes, the Frontliners who worked tirelessly to control the outbreak.

Our Muslim friends called us to deliver their thoughtful gesture via our Selera Muhibbah Iftar Charity package and Salam Aidilfitri Raya Charity package. It was indeed a pleasure for us to be of service, to look upon the joyful faces of the children and elders when we delivered the hearty meals to the homes. It was certainly a good reminder that it doesn't matter how big or small the deed is.

A JOINT COMMUNITY PROJECT TROPICANA CORPORATION AND THAI ODYSSEY

Tropicana Corporation Berhad and Thai Odyssey collaborated in a CSR initiative of producing 3,000 face shields, which will be disseminated at the end of the month to hospitals selected by Ministry of Health.

Dr Leon Chuah, Managing Director of Thai Odyssey, eagerly deployed 20 staffs to be trained and subsequently produced the face shields at Tropicana Golf & Country Resort from 16th to 19th June. It was indeed a new experience for them but having skilled hands, and with a big heart, the end results were exceptional.

"We hope this small contribution would help to secure the safety of our heroes as they continue to combat Covid-19" says Mr Herman Tan, Executive Director of TGCR. "It is because of them we are now able to operate our Resort and businesses. #thankyouMalaysia", he added.

AETAS DAMANSARA

Artist's Impression

THE GOOD LIFE DISCERNINGLY CRAFTED

The perfection of a masterpiece takes meticulous planning and passion, just like the journey helmed by experts in design and architecture to bring Aetas Damansara to life. Where next to the Tropicana Golf & Country Resort, a living, breathing home welcomes you to discover the good life that comes with a mesmerising golf view.

GOLF

SOCIAL DISTANCING

Golf remains popular during the pandemic. It's a nearly perfect social distancing sport, since it is easy for players to remain six feet apart, each with his or her own equipment. Plus, the game is played in the great outdoors.

Adhering to authorities' guidelines, TGCR implemented some new rules since the reopening on 4th May, such as a 'one-person-per-buggy' rule and a ban on touching the flag pole, with the former being relaxed since 4th July. Other necessary precautions includes sanitizing golf bags and consistently cleaning the buggies.

Golf, as the pandemic continues, is withstanding the test of time once again, providing exercise, companionship, open spaces, and plenty of sunshine, all for a fairly reasonable price.
