THE ART OF CARING

TROPICANA DELIVERS 7,500 FOOD PACKS & DAILY NECESSITIES TO 15 WELFARE HOMES

Tropicana Foundation, a charity arm of Tropicana Corporation Berhad, reaches out to the underprivileged community during the Ramadan month.

The charity food drive organised by the Tropicana Foundation saw over 7,500 hot meals prepared, packed and delivered by Tropicana Golf & Country Resort to 15 orphanages, refugees, special needs & old folks' homes around the Klang Valley region.

The hot meal deliveries to these homes were also supplemented by RM 40,000 worth of dry goods, clothes, school bags, books, sanitisers and cleaning products donated in aid of these homes during the holy Ramadan month.

A big shout out to all involved in making this charity campaign a great success.

Welcome Aboard!

Put your hands together as we welcome MR FOO KEN NEE, IR DR KAMARUL ANUAR and MS HANU SELVAN to the Management Team

TGCR is pleased to announce that Mr Foo Ken Nee has joined us as the Executive Director, starting from April 1, 2021. Foo has a wealth of experience amassed over 20 years working in several key industries namely pharmaceutical, consumer healthcare, animal healthcare, audit and corporate advisory, manufacturing and supply chain distribution.

In the past, he has held senior leadership positions as Country Manager, Finance Director, Marketing Director, Strategic Planning and Business Operations Director, and Head of Business Development. His areas of expertise include financial and operational management, corporate strategic planning, business development, sales and marketing management, corporate restructuring, audit advisory services, and mergers and acquisitions, having worked with corporations such as Pfizer Malaysia, Zuellig Pharma, Zoetis Malaysia and PricewaterhouseCoopers.

Prior to joining Tropicana, Foo served as Chief Financial Officer for Pecca Group Bhd where he was responsible for finance, investor relations, legal and IT functions. During his tenure with Pecca, he was also requested to take on the role of acting Chief Executive Officer.

A qualified Chartered Accountant and a member of the Malaysian Institute of Accountants and CPA Australia, Foo obtained his Bachelor of Commerce from Murdoch University in Western Australia, majoring in Accounting and Finance.

The management team also welcomes Ir Dr Kamarul Anuar, who joins us as Director of Operations, Special Projects, starting from July 5, 2021.

Dr Kamarul has 17 years of solid experience in delivering strategy leadership and execution for the government and private sector organisations.

Prior to joining Tropicana, Dr Kamarul was with UEM Group and its subsidiaries, heading strategy and corporate planning. He had in the past been appointed as a member of the board for UEM Construction Sdn Bhd, having been involved in the construction of PNB 118.

Dr Kamarul is a professional Engineer registered under the Board of Engineers Malaysia and Project Management Professional (PMP) certified. He holds a PhD from University of Salford Manchester, Master's degree from University of East London, Bachelor of Engineering from University of Malaya and Certificate in Business Analytics and Strategy Execution from Harvard Business School (HBS).

An avid cyclist, he also enjoys tennis and badminton, and is passionate about world history, design and architecture.

Another new member to the team is Ms Hanu Selvan, who takes on the role of Manager, Marketing & Public Relations.

Hanu, who joined us officially in May 2021, comes with a wealth of experience spanning nearly 19 years in public relations, event management and media relations. She began her career as a journalist with the National News Agency (BERNAMA), gaining a myriad of exposure in news coverage.

She then moved to the Selangor Government where she was appointed a Special Officer to a Selangor Executive Councilor (EXCO). Her subsequent position as an Administrative Manager of a non-governmental organisation headed by a Deputy Minister equipped her with the experience and expertise in running a corporation from the human resources perspective.

Next, Hanu crossed over to an international hospitality chain, Pullman Group, which managed 5-star establishments nationwide; the move provided her with knowledge in public relations, marketing, advertising, media and hotel operations.

Hanu's last served position prior to joining TGCR was as the Group Public Relations Manager for Country Heights Holding Bhd.

Backed by a Master's Honours Degree in the field of Human Resources and Management, she is certainly a valuable addition to the team, along with Foo and Dr Kamarul.

Here's wishing you all a rewarding, fulfilling career here at Tropicana Golf & Country Resort.

"Welcome to the TGCR family, Mr Foo Ken Nee, Ir Dr Kamarul Anuar and Ms Hanu Selvan! Here's wishing all of you a rewarding, fulfilling career here at Tropicana Golf & Country Resort."

TGCR members come together in aid of caddies during lockdown

Malaysia, along with the rest of the world, continues to battle the Covid-19 virus, which has caused unimaginable hardship to lives everywhere.

With golf being prohibited during lockdowns, it has truly been a challenge for TGCR, just like all other golf and recreational clubs in the country, to maintain our facilities and equipment in working order while we strive to keep the club afloat.

So it was truly heartening to see TGCR members coming forward to help out our caddies in these times of trouble, aiding them with essential food items such as rice, eggs, cooking oil, instant noodles, biscuits and more.

TGCR would like to express our deepest gratitude to all those who went out of their way to lend a helping hand to our caddies.

THE OLYMPICS LOOMS

Time for Malaysia to get cracking

For golf to be included in the 2016 Olympics was a dream come true and a great boost for the sport.

In Malaysia, everyone jumped for joy and the powers-that-be jumped on the bandwagon and used tax payers money to fund events with the tag, "The Road to the Olympics".

This would have encouraged aspiring kids (or parents) to head for academies after all that publicity.

Now, before we jump the gun and expect a Malaysian to be in the field of Top 60 golfers in the world, let's look at the hard facts first.

Currently athletes participating in the Olympics are based on merit. Qualifying rounds and entries must be submitted by the respective governing bodies of each country through their Olympic Council.

In August 2013, Golf Digest Malaysia then-editor Patrick Ho's column put things into perspective. The headline 'Olympics Dream On Hold' was shocking to say the least.

The Professional Golfers Association of Malaysia (PGAM) president then, Firuz Jaffril was quoted saying, "I was informed of the need to set-up a Malaysian Golf Confederation (MGC) by Tunku Tan Sri Imran". Since then Firuz has resigned as president of the PGAM and there have been no statements from the OCM on this matter.

So, how was Malaysia going to be represented in Rio?

Currently, we have the Malaysian Golf Association, the PGAM and PGM Tour who each have roles or mandates as governing bodies.

Let's stop there for the moment and look at the criteria of eligibility recommended by the International Golf Federation (IGF) to the International Olympic Committee (IOC). Only the top 60 men and 60 women listed on the world golf ranking get to play in Rio. Under selected provisions of the International Golf Federation (IGF) the top 15 golfers on the ranking gain automatic entry. Only two golfers per country gain entry.

So, this means that our boys and girls have to move up the world ranking fast.

Now, coming back to the rightful governing body to oversee the Olympics process. Rightfully, the honour and spearheading should belong to the MGA, as based on the qualification requirements, player recommendations must be submitted by the MGA to the OCM, who will then submit the players names to the IOC.

It's the same for all sports.

So, why and how did other associations get the mandate to stage 'Road to Olympics' events? How did they get past the Sports Commissioner's office?

In 2009, the IGF (comprising the USGA and R&A) wrote to their world affiliates to find out if they would support golf to be included in the 2016 Olympics.

For the record, MGA is the only body from Malaysia which is officially registered with the IGF and R&A. As such, all correspondence pertaining to the inclusion of the game were answered by the MGA.

When I was general manager of the MGA then, I had the honour of submitting all the required information to the IGF via the R&A. MGA even contributed to the Olympics bidding fund that covered travel and other costs incurred by members of the Bidding Committee.

With this clarification, I hope all parties will get together and work towards sending the best sportsmen and officials for the upcoming Tokyo 2020 Olympics.

Let's work on acquiring a good sponsor to fly the players, officials and referees. Let the nation be proud as we are the third oldest country in the world to play golf after St Andrews (India, Sri Lanka and Malaya then). As the saying goes, "wherever the British goes, the games go along with them."

This story first appeared in Golf Digest (2014). It has been updated accordingly.

At press time, Gavin Kyle Green and Kelly Tan have secured spots to represent Malaysia at the Tokyo Olympics. (The two also represented the country in the 2016 Rio Olympics, along with Danny Chia and Michelle Koh.)

Indulgence On Demand

Let your taste buds rejoice with some of the finest, most gratifying set meals near you!

Missing a hearty Indian meal? Authentic kampung flavours that take you back to your childhood? Or perhaps some fine Italian or Nyonya cuisine is what you're desperately yearning for.

Well, whatever your craving may be, chances are our talented F&B team at TGCR has got you covered – and you wouldn't even have to leave the comfort of your abode to get those taste buds dancing deliriously with pure joy!

Since the extended MCO, TGCR's talented Executive Chef Zack @ Zaihari, along with his equally talented and passionate crew, have been meticulously putting together creative menus and dishes that would be ideal for both 'takeaway' and 'delivery'.

Foodies can also rest assured that the proper safety and hygiene practices are observed so that all food items are packed well to ensure freshness upon delivery.

There is a whole host of set meals – and, of course, ala carte items – on offer for discerning palates, namely the Daily Sets (themed), Special Sets, Ala Carte Sets and Special Add Ons.

"TGCR's talented Executive Chef Zack @ Zaihari, along with his equally talented and passionate crew, have been meticulously putting together creative menus and dishes that would be ideal for both 'takeaway' and 'delivery'."

Feature
